The Bifurcated Trial: Is It Used More than It is Useful? 441

Constitutional Law—Equal Protection—A State Statute Prohibiting Noncitizens from Serving in all Positions Classified as "Peace Officers" Does Not Violate the Fourteenth Amendment's Equal Protection Clause When Applied to County Parole Officers; the Citizenship Requirement Is Not Overbroad and Falls Within the State's Sovereign Authority to Define Its Political Community 707

Constitutional Law—Fourteenth Amendment—Equal Protection—A Voting Scheme Established by State Law for Electing the Directors of a Water Reclamation District That Limits Voting Eligibility to Landowners and Apportions Voting Power According to the Amount of Land Owned in the District Does Not Violate the Equal Protection Clause When It Bears a Reasonable Relationship to Its Statutory Objectives, and the Statutorily Limited Function of the District and Its Special Relationship to District Landowners Releases It from the Strict Demands of the One Person, One Vote Principle 201

Federal Income Tax—Amount Realized—The Amount Realized upon Disposition of Property Secured by a Nonrecourse Mortgage is Limited by the Fair Market Value of Such Property 242
